

PANASCO VII

Responding to an invitation of the Superior Council of India, and thanks to the Superior Council of Australia with proposed to afford the journey, the President General attended the opening of the PANASCO VIIth in Goa where all Vincentians countries from Asia and Oceania were gathered to work on the motto "Justice and Peace are embraced". As it was the last trip of the President General, on this occasion his spouse were also invited.

Because of a problem of health due to a recent surgical operation, the President General was obliged to leave earlier and could not stay until the closing ceremony..

The participation at this meeting was a true success and hundreds of delegates from Asia and Oceania were presents.
